Conformity Review Listing of Catechetical Texts and Series

The Conformity Review Process has served the Church in the United States over the past twenty-five years since the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The review process is meant to assist in the conformity of catechetical texts and series in an authentic and complete way to the Catechism.

About the Conformity Review List

The Conformity Review List is a list of catechetical texts or series which have been judged to be in conformity with the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The conformity review of the Subcommittee on the Catechism generally pertains to content only; therefore, the declaration of conformity given to catechetical materials does not constitute an overall endorsement of any specific series or text by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Catechetical Accompaniment Process

This process evaluates catechetical materials for conformity to the Catechism using the same Protocols as prior Conformity Reviews, but with a new methodology that permits the evaluation and use of digital materials. Materials in this section are evaluated (accompanied) throughout their creation to ensure conformity to the Catechism and to promote effectiveness in how they present the truths of faith. This interim process was implemented in 2021 while the current Conformity Review Process remains active and valid.
